Wholesale Farm Seed Price List

A Message to Our Dealers

The U. S. Department of Agriculture released the following statement:

"Dakota No. 12" Not A Variety Name for Alfalfa Seed: The term "Dakota No. 12" will no longer be recognized as a variety name for alfalfa seed shipped in interstate commerce subject to the Federal Seed Act, the U. S. Department of Agriculture announced. Grower's signed declarations indicating that the seed is the "Dakota No. 12" variety, will not be recognized as a basis for labeling the seed "Dakota No. 12."

Department officials said it seems to be generally agreed by seedsmen and alfalfa specialists that the original seed known as "Dakota No. 12", or "Dakota 12", put on the market several years ago, was not a separate variety, but was instead the same as other northern adapted winter hardy common alfalfas."

As it has been our policy to cooperate at all times with the Federal and State authorities, we are complying with the Federal regulation and our South Dakota alfalfa will now be labeled as Dakota grown alfalfa.
